

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

NURSING UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATION

September 2025 Newsletter

Join us for

THE NUA BACK TO CLASS NURSING GRILL OUT

SEPTEMBER 16TH / 12PM - 4PM
ECHA BACKSIDE (11405 87 AVE NW)

This event is the perfect opportunity to kick off the new school year; it can be super daunting to come into a new academic term, whether you're heading into 1st or 4th, so let's break the tension a little! Grab a $5 meal and build meaningful connections with those who are in the same boat as you.

Submit your food choice here!

For any questions/concerns feel free to contact the NUA at nua@ualberta.ca

PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR RESEARCH STUDY

Help Us Improve Health Communication Across Languages!

We are looking for participants to review translated resources and give their feedback, hoping to better understand if the translation is clear, easy to read, and trustworthy. The results will help guide how translations are done in healthcare to better support diverse communities.

Are you:

- ✓ 18 years of age or older?
- ✓ Living in Canada?
- ✓ Comfortable reading and completing a questionnaire in English?
- ✓ Native speaker of French, Spanish, Ukrainian, Tagalog, Arabic, Chinese, or Punjabi?

What's Involved?

- review a resource sheet and answer questionnaires (approx. 10-15 mins)
- Gift card compensation
- Participate from anywhere, at your convenience

To learn more or participate,

Contact: arche@ualberta.ca or visit the link below.

<https://redcap.ualberta.ca/surveys/?s=PM8LHMK973FR37RJ>

This study (Pro00153815) has been reviewed for its adherence to ethical guidelines by a Research Ethics Board at the University of Alberta.

BRANCH STUDY: BRAIDING RESEARCH, ACCOUNTABILITY, KNOWLEDGE, COMMUNITY & HEALING

Holding researchers accountable to engaging in safer research with Indigenous Peoples

Date: Sept 19,
2025

Time: 1:00pm EST

Nitohtamowin and Nahihtamowin: Listening Well as the Foundation for Respectful, Reciprocal Community- Driven Research

This presentation shares the foundation of our community-driven work and its impact. We will highlight successful collaborative projects, how they vary across communities, and stories of research and researchers that were not respectful or beneficial for our communities with explanations of the harms done.

To Register, Please Email:
ContactBranchProject@Gmail.com

Presenters include:

- Dr. Cari McIllduff
- Karen LaRocque
- Reah Starr
- Judy Upton

ContactBranchProject@Gmail.Com

This study received ethics approval by the Human Research Ethics Board at the University of Toronto

BLOOMBERG
LAWRENCE S. BLOOMBERG
FACULTY OF NURSING
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Oahas
ONTARIO ABORIGINAL
HEALTH STRATEGY

CIHR
IRSC

Canadian Institutes of Health Research
Instituts de recherche en santé du Canada

Job Opportunity

Looking for a passionate individual to join our multidisciplinary team! Apply to be a Community Support Worker for Inclusive Communities Care!

Scan for full job description and application information

For more information visit Inclusive Communities Care at www.inclusivecommunitiescare.com

We're hi finance — a university-based startup that takes the stress out of your finances. We help with grants, savings, taxes, and more!

You focus on your studies, we focus on your finances

2-MINUTE SURVEY
TO GET STARTED

HOW WE WORK WITH STUDENTS:

- ✓ Securing tuition funding
Average student we work with earns over $3,000 in grants they otherwise wouldn't have received
- ✓ Maximizing savings
Budgeting, student discounts, HISAs, TFSAs
- ✓ Tax prep
Tuition tax credits, disability tax credits, tax prep
- ✓ Career help resources
Reviewing contracts, negotiations, benefits
- ✓ Student financial advisor
Choosing the right bank, debt-repayment plans,

Visit hifinance.ca for more details